

Legend

-  Existing tree retained & protected
-  Proposed tree
-  Property Boundary
-  Potential Trail
-  Existing Path
-  Significant Sight line
-  Existing Wetland & Proposed Boardwalk /Bird Hide
-  Proposed Nature Play area
-  Proposed shelter & seating
-  Proposed local environmental garden
-  Proposed Carpark

Provide access to wetland with boardwalk and bird hides

Provide formalised, but unsealed walking / jogging track with seats and potential exercise stations (subject to community demand)

Maintain views between the reserve and Curdies River

Provide new cricket practice nets

Seating outside court fence with views onto the court

Retain tennis courts and enhance as multi-use community courts including basketball and soccer

New storage shed for tennis equipment

Rebound / Practice wall

Nature play consisting of sand, rocks, logs and mulch

Simple shelter facilities with single picnic table

Close through access and provide small parking area for community access and maintenance

Maintain views into reserve

Remove nets and relocate pitch to central position in open area or informal ball games

Existing swale re-aligned to allow for enlargement of open field

Supplement existing vegetation to provide shelter from south westerly winds

Provide informal parking area and close road

Maintain views into the reserve

Central space enlarged as open community field, suitable for informal recreation as well as for occasional community events

Maintain views into the center of the reserve

Land Design Partnership
 52-54 Rathdowne Street Carlton, 3053
 Victoria Australia
 Telephone: 03 9348 2788 Fax: 03 9348 1965
 Email: info@landdesign.com.au
 www.landdesign.com.au

PETERBOROUGH IRVINE RESERVE
PRELIMINARY LAND USE OPTION 1

SCALE 1:500 @ A1 DATE 07.06.19
 DRAWN BY SW CHKD LF
 REV.
 DRG.NO. LMP1

